New Furniture Arrived—

The new furniture consisting of patent metal tables and chairs of the most modern design has arrived and is already installed in Tagg's new ice cream parlor. The parlor which has just been built is almost square and without doubt is one of the prettiest and servicable in the county. It must be seen to be appreciated.

Last Day to Enter—

The entries for the great electoral events scheduled for the first of June, on the famous old Clatsop political race course, closed at 5 o'clock yesterday evening, and there were added to the list of candidates, the names of Albert S. Carlson, independent candidate for sheriff, and R. M. Woodin, independent candidate for the office of representative in the legislature.

Will Celebrate Today—

This, May 17th, is the great national fete day for the people of Norway, it being relatively, of the same inspiration as the American Fourth of July. The natives of that rugged and sturdy country will celebrate the anniversary by appropriate ceremonies and pleasant indulgences, at the National Hall, in Alderbrook, and hark back to the days and the land they first knew and loved.

Happiness Programmed—

The pleasant announcement has reached this city of the intended marriage of Miss Eva Parker, of Warrenton, grand-daughter of Hon. H. B. Parker of this city, and a daughter of one of the oldest of Clatsop's pioneer families, to Mr. George Smith, a well known and popular employee of the Tongue Point Lumbering Co.; the happy event being scheduled to take place at the home of the bride in that city.

Bids Opened—

The street and public ways committee opened bids which had been advertised for improving Twelfth street from Commercial street to Duane street and for improving Ninth street from Jerome to Kensington avenues. On the latter Benjamin L. Ward bid $1636 and the city surveyor's estimate was $1154.80. He was the only bidder. Three bids were made on the Twelfth street improvement and they were Birch and Jacobson, $1916, Makkela and Wuopio, $1830, and Charles E. Johnson, $1430. The surveyor's estimate was $1820.

In the Police Court—

The continued case of George S. Vlanchos who was accused of selling liquor without a city license was tried yesterday afternoon. The defendant was represented by Attorney C. J. Curtis. Several witnesses were examined but their testimony was not of any particular importance. The evidence of Officer Linville was uncontradicted and the court imposed a sentence of a fine of $30 or 15 days in jail. One other unfortunate was assessed $5.00 or two days for a violation of ordinance 1431.

Body Found—

The body of Victor Sandrys was found floating in the river by members of the crew of the lighthouse tender Heather about 6 o'clock yesterday morning and turned over to Coroner Pohl. Mr. Sandrys was night watchman at the Sanborn coal docks at the foot of Ninth street and has been missing since May 5. Fears were entertained that the unfortunate man had fallen overboard and the finding of the body confirms the sad accident. He was 57 years of age and leaves two daughters who reside in Colville, Wash. He will be buried by the Longshoremen's Union and the funeral will take place at 1 o'clock this (Sunday) afternoon. The interment will be in Greenwood cemetery.

Badly Injured—

Charles Bester, foreman of the logging camp of the Seaside Lumber & Manufacturing Company met with a very serious and painful accident at the mill yesterday morning. In some manner he got caught between the roll-way and the tender of the engine which was being backed down. He had several ribs broken and was terribly crushed about the hips. President Henninger immediately telegraphed the A. & C. authorities for an engine and car to bring the unfortunate man to St. Mary's hospital in this city. The railroad company dispatched a train upon receipt of Manager Henninger's request and Mr. Bester was brought to the hospital. The attending physician bound the poor fellow up and administered an opiate and will make a thorough examination of his injuries as soon as the sufferer is able to be subjected to it.

He Accounted For It—

A stout and hearty old fisherman was overhauling his boat and gear as it lay idle at the landing next to Fisher Brothers' establishment yesterday, when a reporter of the Astorian ventured to ask him his opinion on the dearth of salmon in these waters. The old man looked at the pencil pusher in dubious fashion for a moment, as if he doubted the right of the inquirer to inquire, and then seeing the note-book and pencil, unbosomed himself as follows: "Well, sonny, it's no marvel to me; the season hain't got nothin' to do w' it, nor the weather, either; it's just old fashioned salmon-gumption, that's wat it is; they're a hanging off the bar till the people of this State put th' kibosh on them durned fish-wheels and they have a clear road to the spawnin' grounds w' some sort o' likelihood of there gettin' there and back again and a doin' of their natural duty by the trade and us fishers. They're a knowin' lot, these salmon, and don't you fergit it, my lad!"

A Fisheries Conference—

On Monday evening there is to be a meeting of the officers of the Seiners' & Trappers' Union, of this city, with the executive committee of the Fishermen's Union, of Astoria, and the Astoria Protective Committee of Fifteen, at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, to confer on the future attitude of the Seiners and Trappers, in regard to the fishery bill No. 332, known as the "Gill-netters' bill," and for which all Astoria is fighting in order to preserve the salmon industry of the Columbia; the main object of the meeting being to clear away all ambiguities now existent, as to the alleged threat of the Fishermen's Union to attack the seiners and trappers after the fish-wheels have been properly disposed of by the people at the polls on June 1st. The S. & T. people desire to know that no such action is to be taken as against them, and so knowing, will throw their strength, financial aid, and activities to the success of that bill. The meeting is certain to be full of interest to all present, as well as to all others on the outside, who look for a complete and harmonious issue of the conference.
